Volunteers and Cooperating Associations

- 34,510 volunteers contributed 1,118,261 hours to the department in 2009/10.
 Volunteers help staff visitor centers, maintain trails, serve as camp hosts, give interpretive programs, present special events and do much, much more to share their love of the parks with the visiting public.
- 84 cooperating associations, 501 (c) 3 non profit organizations that raise funds and advocate for state park units, have over 27,000 members and actively support park units throughout the state. Cooperating associations provide support for visitor centers and undertake fund raising to further the interpretive and educational programs in the parks they serve. Hundreds of special events and thousands of individual interpretive programs reaching hundreds of thousands of visitors would not be possible without their support.

Commissions

- The State Park and Recreation Commission has specific authorities and responsibilities defined in California law, including:
 - Approval of general plans for units of the State Park System
 - Classifying units of the System
 - Approval of concession agreements that: exceed $500,000; are for more than 20 years; or that include the sale of alcoholic beverages..
 - Establishing general policies for the guidance of the Director of State Parks in the administration, protection and development of the System
 - Recommending to the Director a comprehensive recreation policy for the state
 - The Commission's nine members are appointed by

- the Governor and confirmed by the Senate.
- The California Off-Highway Motor Vehicle Recreation Commission is separate from the Park and Recreation Commission consisting of nine members, five of whom shall be selected by the Governor and subject to Senate confirmation, two of whom shall be selected by the Senate Committee on Rules, and two of whom shall be selected by the Speaker of the Assembly. The Commission appointments are primarily advisory in nature, although they approve General Plans for the SVRAs and provide a forum for public input.
