

Park		Weapons and Fortifications Storyline	County
Angel Island SP	1863	U.S. Army, Civil War to Cold War. Camp Reynolds, Fort McDowell, coastal defense, gun batteries, Nike missile sites. Busy center for induction, quarantine and discharge. Detention camp during WWII. Civil War-era overnight experience for students; cannon firing demonstrations.	Marin
Drum Barracks Civil War Museum	1862	Garrison and supply base; camel pack train experiment. See esp. Technology Innovations exhibit.	Los Angeles
El Presidio de Santa Barbara SHP	1782	Last of four military outposts built by Spain to protect Alta California	Santa Barbara
Fort Humboldt SHP	1853	Garrison intended to quell Indian-Settler conflicts. Military museum exhibits, Ulysses S. Grant briefly served here as Captain of Co. 'F'	Humboldt
Fort Ord Dunes SP	1917	Land purchased for an artillery training field, initially for horse cavalry. Hundreds of thousands of soldiers trained for service in World War I, World War II, Korea, Vietnam. The beach firing ranges were essential for combat readiness. Cell-phone walking tour.	Monterey
Fort Ross SHP	1812	Fortified settlement of the Russian-American Company includes armory exhibit, stockade, and reconstructed blockhouses. See online Museum collection . Cannon firing demonstrations.	Sonoma
Fort Tejon SHP	1854	Garrisoned to protect and control Indians of Sebastian Reservation, defend against raids by desert tribes; camel pack train experiment.	Kern
Shasta SHP	1861	Courthouse Museum exhibits a collection of firearms from mid- to late 19th century.	Shasta
Sonoma SHP	1837	Sonoma Barracks (El Cuartel) is the restored two storey adobe headquarters compound of Mariano Vallejo, commander (El Commandante General) of Mexico's northern frontier. Built to check Russian expansion at Fort Ross, it was the scene of the Bear Flag revolt.	Sonoma
Sutter's Fort SHP	1841	Headquarters of Sutter's frontier fiefdom, the large compound was protected by adobe walls 2.5 feet thick. Built by the local Nisenan Indians, it played a role in the Bear Flag Revolt and was briefly garrisoned by the U.S. Army. Cannon firing demonstrations.	Sacramento